THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

N. Y. CENTRAL BUYS ALONGSIDE ITS HARLEM STATION.

Salittle Bros. Purchase the Building at 70 Greenwich St.-George F. Johnson Takes Profit on the Old Parkville Flats Houses Near Fifth Ave. Sold. The brokerage branch of the market was extremely active yesterday. The trading was widely distributed. It affeeted principally the tenement districts, but extended also to the Fifth avenue residentia neighborhood and the midtown mercantile section. The New York Central bought the Belden and Sperry properties, comprising a plot 149.11x90 feet, at the southwest corner of Park avenue and 126th street. A report that the Hamilton Building at the northeast corner of Park avenue and 125th street had also been secured by the New York Central was denied It is understood that the Harlem station will eventually be enlarged and that the Central is gradually buying up the land used for this purpose. However, the immediate object of yesterday's purchase was said to be the extinction of a claim for damages against the road.
